Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With reference to claims 1-11, 18, & 19, the prior art of record does not disclose or clearly suggest an irreversible humidity indicator card, comprising a deliquescent material contained within the holes in the intermediate carrier member and a dark colored absorbent sheet material placed against a back side of the intermediate carrier member, which material covers the holes in the intermediate carrier member, in combination with the remaining limitations in the claims.

With reference to claims 12 & 20, the prior art of record does not disclose or clearly suggest an irreversible humidity indicator card, comprising a white deliquescent material contained within the holes in the intermediate carrier member and a dark colored absorbent sheet material placed against a back side of the intermediate carrier member, which material covers the holes in the intermediate carrier member, in combination with the remaining limitations in the claims.

With reference to claims 13 & 21, the prior art of record does not disclose or clearly suggest an irreversible humidity indicator card, comprising a deliquescent material contained within the holes in the intermediate carrier member, wherein the deliquescent material does not include a dye material and a dark colored absorbent sheet material placed against a back side of the intermediate carrier member, which material covers the holes in the intermediate carrier member, in combination with the remaining limitations in the claims.

With reference to claims 14-17, the prior art of record does not disclose or clearly suggest a process of manufacture of a humidity indicator card comprising placing a deliquescent material within the holes of the intermediate carrier member, covering the holes
